COMBATTING INTOLERANCE, NEGATIVE STEREOTYPING AND STIGMATISATION OF, AND DISCRIMINATION, INCITEMENT TO VIOLENCE,
AND VIOLENCE AGAINST PERSONS BASED ON RELIGION OR BELIEF

Reaffirming the commitment made by all States, under the Charter of the United Nations, to promote and encourage universal respect of and observance of all human rights and fundamental freedoms without distinction as to, inter alia, religion or belief.

Reaffirming the obligation of states to prohibit discrimination on the basis of religion or belief and to implement measures to guarantee the equal and effective protection of the law;

Reaffirming also that the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights provides, inter alia, that everyone shall have the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion or belief, which shall include freedom to have or to adopt a religion or belief of his choice, and freedom, either individually or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in worship, observance, practice and teaching;

Reaffirming the positive role that the exercise of the right to freedom of opinion and expression and the full respect for the freedom to seek, receive and impart information can play in strengthening democracy and combating religious intolerance;

Deeply concerned about incidents of intolerance, discrimination and violence against persons based on their religion or belief in all regions of the world;

Deploring any advocacy of discrimination or violence on the basis of religion or belief;

Strongly deploring all acts of violence against persons on the basis of their religion or belief, as well as any such acts directed against their homes, businesses, properties, schools, cultural centres, or places of worship;

Also concerned about actions that willfully exploit tensions or target individuals on the basis of their religion or belief.

Noting with deep concern the instances of intolerance, discrimination and acts of violence in many parts of the world, including cases motivated by discrimination against persons belonging to religious minorities, in addition to the negative projection of the followers of religions and the enforcement of measures that specifically discriminate against persons on the basis of religion or beliefs;

Recognizing the valuable contribution of people of all religions or beliefs to humanity and the contribution that dialogue among religious groups can make towards improved awareness and understanding of the common values shared by all humankind;

Recognizing also that working together to enhance implementation of existing legal regimes that protect individuals against discrimination and hate crimes, increase interfaith and intercultural efforts, and to expand human rights education are important first steps in combating incidents of intolerance, discrimination and violence against or of individuals on the basis of religion or belief;

1. Expresses deep concern at the continued serious instances of derogatory stereotyping, negative profiling and stigmatization of persons based on their religion or beliefs as well as programmes and agendas pursued by extremist organizations and groups aimed at creating and perpetuating negative stereotypes about religious groups, in particular when condoned by Governments;
2. Expresses its concern that incidents of religious intolerance, discrimination and related violence, as well as of negative stereotyping of individuals on the basis of religion or belief continue to rise around the world, and condemns, in this context, any advocacy of religious hatred against individuals that constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence, and urges States to take effective measures, as set forth in this resolution, consistent with their obligations under international human rights law, to address and combat such incidents;
3. Condemns any advocacy of religious hatred that constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence, whether it involves the use of print, audio-visual or electronic media or any other means;
4. Recognises that the open public debate of ideas, as well as interfaith and intercultural dialogue at the local, national, and international levels, can be among the best protections against religious intolerance, and can play a positive role in strengthening democracy and combating religious hatred, and convinced that a continuing dialogue on these issues can help overcome existing misperceptions;
5. Notes the speech given by Secretary General of the Organization of the Islamic Conference, Ekmeleddin Ihsanoglu at the 15th Session of the Human Rights Council, and draws on his call on States to take the following actions to foster a domestic environment of religious tolerance, peace and respect by:
 - a. Encouraging the creation of collaborative networks to build mutual understanding, promoting dialogue and inspiring constructive action toward shared policy goals and the pursuit of tangible outcomes, such as servicing projects in the fields of education, health, conflict prevention, employment, integration, and media education;
 - b. Creating an appropriate mechanism within the government to inter alia, identify and address potential areas of tension between members of different religious communities and assisting with conflict prevention and mediation;
 - c. Encouraging training of government officials on effective outreach strategies;

- d. Encouraging efforts of leaders to discuss within their communities causes of discrimination and evolving strategies to counter these causes;
 - e. Speaking out against intolerance, including advocacy of religious hatred that constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence;
 - f. Adopting measures to criminalize incitement to imminent violence based on religion or belief ;
 - g. Understanding the need to combat denigration and negative religious stereotyping of persons, as well as incitement to religious hatred by strategizing and harmonizing actions at the local, national, regional, and international levels through, inter alia, education, and awareness-building;
 - h. Recognizing that the open, constructive and respectful debate of ideas, as well as interfaith and intercultural dialogue at the local, national, and international levels can play a positive role in combating religious hatred, incitement and violence.
6. Calls upon all States to:
- a. take effective measures to ensure that public functionaries in the conduct of their public duties do not discriminate against an individual on the basis of religion or belief ,
 - b. foster religious freedom and pluralism by promoting the ability of members of all religious communities to manifest their religion, and to contribute openly and on an equal footing to the society,
 - c. encourage representation and meaningful participation of individuals, irrespective of their religion, in all sectors of society,
 - d. undertake a strong effort to counter religious profiling, which is understood to be the invidious use of religion as a criterion in conducting questionings, searches, and other law enforcement investigative procedures,
7. Encourages States to consider providing updates on efforts made in this regard as part of ongoing reporting to the OHCHR;
8. Also calls upon States to adopt measures and policies to promote the full respect and protection for places of worship and religious sites, cemeteries and shrines and to take measures in cases where they are vulnerable to vandalism or destruction;
9. Calls for strengthened international efforts to foster a global dialogue for the promotion of a culture of tolerance and peace at all levels, based on respect for human rights and diversity of religions and beliefs, and decides to convene a panel discussion on this issue during the 17th regular session of the Human Rights Council within existing resources.
